COMPLAINT

Count I - Negligence Claim Against Marvin Roybal

Now comes Plaintiff, Robert Whitford, and for this Complaint against Defendant, Marvin Roybal states as follows:

1. On or about February 8, 2019, Robert Whitford was the driver of a motor vehicle traveling in a westbound direction on I-64 at or near its intersection with 159 in the Caseyville Township, County of St. Clair, State of Illinois.
2. At the said time, Defendant Marvin Roybal was an employee or agent of Defendant RST, Inc., and was operating a tractor trailer owned by RST, Inc. which was traveling in a westbound direction on I-64 at or near its intersection with 159 in the City of Caseyville Township, County of St. Clair, State of Illinois.
3. It was then and there the duty of Defendant Marvin Roybal, through its agents and employees, to operate the tractor trailer with reasonable care for the safety of other persons and for their property.
4. Despite Defendant RST, Inc.'s said duty and in violation thereof, Defendant RST, Inc.'s agent or employee, Marvin Roybal, then and there negligently and carelessly acted or failed to act in one or more of the following ways:

- a. Failed to stop or swerve his tractor trailer at the appearance of danger in order to avoid a collision with another vehicle.
- b. Drove his tractor trailer without keeping it under sufficient control to be able to stop or swerve the said tractor trailer at the appearance of danger in order to avoid a collision with another vehicle.
- c. Drove his tractor trailer at a speed that was greater than reasonable and proper with regard to the traffic conditions and the use of the area.
- d. Drove his tractor trailer without keeping an adequate lookout ahead and to the side.
- e. Failed to equip his tractor trailer with adequate brakes.
- f. Negligently and carelessly failed to stop or yield the right of way in compliance with the traffic signal erected at said intersection.

5. As a direct and proximate result of one or more of the foregoing negligent acts or failures to act, the tractor trailer operated by Defendant RST, Inc.'s agent and employee, Marvin Roybal, collided with Robert Whitford's vehicle.

6. As a direct and proximate result of the foregoing, Robert Whitford was caused to suffer loss of normal life, permanent injuries and damages, both externally and internally; was and will be hindered and prevented from attending to his usual duties and affairs; and has suffered pain and anguish, both in mind and body, and will in the future continue to suffer.

7. On the date and time in question, Defendant Marvin Roybal was an agent or employee of Defendant RST, Inc. working in the course and scope of his agency or employment with Defendant RST, Inc.

8. On the date and time in question, Defendant RST, Inc. entrusted a tractor trailer under its control to Defendant Marvin Roybal.

9. On the date and time in question, Defendant RST, Inc. had the right of control over the tractor trailer that was entrusted to Defendant Marvin Roybal.

10. On the date and time in question, Defendant RST, Inc. was liable for Defendant Marvin Roybar's acts and omissions as stated in this cause of action under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, ROBERT WHITFORD, asks for judgment against Defendant, MARVIN ROYBAL, in a sum in excess of Fifty-Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00), plus costs.

Count II - Negligence Claim Against RST, Inc.

Now comes Plaintiff, Robert Whitford, and for this Complaint against Defendant, RST, Inc., states as follows:

1. On or about February 8, 2019, Robert Whitford was the driver of a motor vehicle traveling in a westbound direction on I-64 at or near its intersection with 159 in the City of Caseyville Township, County of St. Clair, State of Illinois.

2. At the said time, Defendant Marvin Roybal, was operating a tractor trailer owned by Defendant RST, Inc. traveling in an westbound direction on I-64 at or near its intersection with 159 in the City of Caseyville Township, County of St. Clair, State of Illinois.

3. It was then and there the duty of the Defendant Marvin Roybal to operate his tractor trailer with reasonable care for the safety of other persons and for their property.

4. Despite Defendant Marvin Roybal's said duty and in violation thereof, the Defendant then and there negligently and carelessly acted or failed to act in one or more of the following ways:

- a. Failed to stop or swerve his tractor trailer at the appearance of danger in order to avoid a collision with another vehicle.
- b. Drove his tractor trailer without keeping it under sufficient control to be able to stop or swerve the said vehicle at the appearance of danger in order to avoid a collision with another vehicle.
- c. Drove his tractor trailer at a speed that was greater than reasonable and proper with regard to the traffic conditions and the use of the area.
- d. Drove his tractor trailer without keeping an adequate lookout ahead and to the side.
- e. Failed to equip his tractor trailer with adequate brakes.
- f. Negligently and carelessly failed to stop or yield the right of way in compliance with the traffic signal erected at said intersection.

5. As a direct and proximate result of one or more of the foregoing negligent acts or failures to act, the tractor trailer operated by Defendant Marvin Roybal collided with Robert Whitford's vehicle.

6. As a direct and proximate result of the foregoing, Robert Whitford was caused to suffer a loss of normal life, permanent injuries and damages, both externally and internally; was and will be hindered and prevented from attending to his usual duties and affairs; and has suffered pain and anguish, both in mind and body, and will in the future continue to suffer.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff ROBERT WHITFORD, asks for judgment against Defendant, RST, Inc., in a sum in excess of Fifty-Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00), plus costs.

Re: 20L0019 Reno vs Schmitt

Re: 21L0019 Whitford vs Roybal

January 8, 2021 a fee of $ 314.00 was accepted and incorrectly receipted for payment of case 20L0019 through Odyssey in error.

The clerk in error typed case number 20L0019 in Odyssey when the correct case number

Should have been 21L0019

The payment of $ 314.00 needs to be receipted in case 21L0019 for filing fee.

Case 20L0019 was opened in error under Reno vs Schmitt and should be applied to case 21L0019 Whitford vs Roybal.

Please receipt the filing fee of $ 314.00 to case 21L0019.

SUMMONS

(Amount Claimed: In excess of $50,000.00)

SERVE: Marvin Roybal 1418 E. Elgin Street, Caldwell, Indiana 83605

TO DEFENDANT MARVIN ROYBAL:

You are summoned and required to file an answer to the complaint in this case, a copy of which is hereto attached, or otherwise file your appearance, in the office of the clerk of this court within 30 days after service of this summons, not counting the day of service. If you fail to do so, a judgment by default may be entered against you for the relief asked in the complaint.

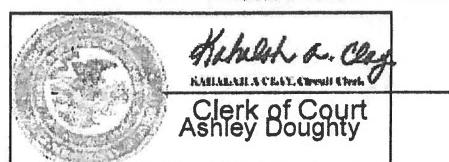

E-filing is now mandatory for documents in civil cases with limited exemptions. To e-file, you must first create an account with an e-filing service provider. Visit <https://efile.illinoiscourts.gov/service-providers.htm> to learn more and to select a service provider.

If you need additional help or have trouble e-filing, visit <http://www.illinoiscourts.gov/fag/gethelp.asp> or talk with your local circuit clerk's office. If you cannot e-file, you may be able to get an exemption that allows you to file in-person or by mail. Ask your circuit clerk for more information or visit www.illinoislegalaid.org.

If you are unable to pay your court fees, you can apply for a fee waiver. For information about defending yourself in a court case (including filing an appearance or fee waiver), or to apply for free legal help, go to www.illinoislegalaid.org. You can also ask your local circuit clerk's office for a fee waiver application.

TO THE PROCESS SERVER: This summons must be returned by the person to whom it was given for service, with endorsement of service and fees, if any, immediately after service. This summons may not be served later than 30 days after its date. If service cannot be made, this summons shall be returned so endorsed.
